

COURSE HOST:

Jackson County Sheriff's Office
Medical Examiner Investigations Unit
Medford, Oregon

PRIMARY INSTRUCTOR:

Jeanne McLaughlin, PhD
Forensic Anthropologist
University of Oregon

REGISTRATION:

Visit the OHIA website. Complete the on-line pre-approval registration form. Upon approval you will be sent a registration form and additional details.

www.orhia.org

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

August 16th, 2010

CLANDESTINE GRAVES: BURIED SKELETAL & SCATTERED SURFACE REMAINS

Oregon Homicide
Investigators Association

Clandestine Graves: Buried Skeletal Remains &
Surface Scattered Remains Recovery

A Workshop for Criminal Investigators,
Medical Examiner/Coroner Investigators,
Prosecutors & Crime Scene Investigators

Attend the one day classroom only session on Sunday 09-12-10
$49 (includes lunch)

Topics Include:

- Overview of Forensic Anthropology
- Basic Elements of the Human Skeleton
- Visual Indicators and Search Techniques for Buried Bodies
- Excavation Techniques (involving actual human specimens)
- Documentation through photography and sketching
- Proper collection of skeletal material and associated physical evidence

Objectives:

- Understand the use of archaeological techniques in homicide investigations
- Know how to document burial & surface skeleton scenes with photography & sketches
- Properly collect, package and transport skeletal material and physical evidence
- Identify the ways to effectively search for buried bodies
- Participate in the excavation of actual burials and related scenes
- Identify the equipment necessary to process a surface skeleton or burial scene

Attendance is limited:

This workshop is open to all certified law enforcement officers, prosecutors, crime scene personnel and medical examiner/coroner investigators who are currently affiliated with a public safety agency and involved in death scene investigations. Prior approval is required and space is limited to the first 21 paid registrations.

WHERE:
WHEN:
COST:

Medford, Oregon
September 12, 13 & 14, 2010
$295 (includes lunches)

